What you can print

- Story PDFs (60): the story, a translation page, key vocabulary, a five-question quiz, a writing prompt and an answer key.
- Level readers (6): all ten stories of a level in one book, ready to copy for a class set.
- Vocabulary lists (6): every key word of a level, grouped by story.

A 45-minute lesson with one story

- Warm-up (5 min). Show the illustration. Students predict what happens, in English or in simple Spanish.
- Listen (5 min). Play the audio once with books closed, then once while students follow the text.
- Read in pairs (10 min). Students read aloud in turns and underline anything they cannot guess.
- Vocabulary (5 min). Go through the bold words. Students use two of them in their own sentence.
- Quiz (10 min). Students answer individually, then compare. Discuss the questions they disagreed on.
- Write and share (10 min). Students answer the writing prompt, then read a sentence to a partner.

Tips

- Keep the stories in order within each level. They get gradually harder and recycle vocabulary.
- For mixed-level classes, give stronger students the next level and let them read a story to the group.
- Use the translation page as a support, not a first step. Ask students to read the Spanish first.
- Answers to the quizzes are on the last page of each story PDF. Remove that page before copying for students.
